

G. V. WIRES GOOD LUCK TO FIGHTING GRADS

Old Times at Front Re- called at Smoker in Memorial Hall

Four hundred veterans of the old times at the front gathered in the Memorial Hall on Friday night for a social gathering. The occasion was the annual smoker of the G. V. Wires, which was held in honor of the fighting grads. The evening was a most successful one, and the veterans were well entertained. The program consisted of a variety of songs, recitations, and a play. The evening closed with a social hour and a dance.

President, Edmonton G.V.W., J. J. McNeil, presided over the evening. He made a short address to the veterans, reminding them of the sacrifices they had made for their country. He also presented a certificate to the G.V.W. for their services. The evening was a most successful one, and the veterans were well entertained.

Two boxing boys were put on by Clarence Spry. Tom Johnson, a local champion, fought a bout with a local contender. The fight was a close one, and Johnson won by a majority decision. The crowd was large, and the fight was well attended.

Pentecostal Assembly Rapidly Becoming a Factor in City's Life

Commenced With House to House Meetings Ten Years Ago—Hall for Public Services Opened in 1917—Location Now Opposite Macdonald Hotel

Among the younger local churches is the Pentecostal Assembly, which bids fair to becoming a prominent factor in the religious life of the city.

Ten years ago a few folks began to gather together for prayer-meetings, congregating once or twice a week in different homes. This was the beginning of the present Pentecostal Assembly. The house-to-house meetings were continued until the fall of 1917, when it was decided to open a hall for public services. Rev. E. B. McAlister, now of London, Ont., came from the east to assume the pastorate. After the young church was just a few weeks old, it was necessary for Mr. McAlister to return east, a large congregation in St. Paul, Minn., demanding his attention.

The leadership again fell to his brother, John McAlister, a resident of the city, who continued to carry on the work for two years and a half. Several moves were made during this period of the church's existence, until finally the old Norwood Methodist church was secured, on the corner of 114th avenue and 93rd street. Later this property was purchased.

Rev. Walter McAlister Called

After Mr. John McAlister's resignation from the pastorate, to accept the charge of the congregation in Lethbridge, the pulpit was filled by Rev. C. O. Benham, temporarily, and later by Rev. W. G. Stenburgh, of the Calgary ministry several aggressive moves were made, one of these efforts being the renting of the Temple theatre for three months of revival services. The congregation grew during this period, and many new friends were made by the young church. After Mr. Caldwell's departure, Rev. Elmer Hoff assumed the pastorate for a year.

Walter McAlister Called

Then the assembly extended a call to Rev. Walter McAlister, a son of Rev. John McAlister, who was first permanent pastor. Walter McAlister's ministry, though very fruitful, was very short and in the summer of 1924 Rev. John McAlister again took charge. In the early part of 1925 there were two branches of the Pentecostal work in the city, one under the leadership of Rev. W. G. Stenburgh and the other under Rev. Hugh J. McAlister, another son of Rev. John McAlister.

Unite Their Forces

In January of this year, at a jointly convened joint meeting of both assemblies, it was decided that the two churches should unite their forces for the field representative of the Pentecostal Assemblies of Canada to organize a new assembly, to be a unit of the general body in the city.

Rev. H. J. McAlister Known As Youngest Pastor in City

Has Been Engaged in Ministerial Work in the City for Over One Year and a Half—Was Ordained to the Ministry in 1924

To the Pentecostal Assembly undoubtedly belongs the distinction of having the youngest pastor in Edmonton in the person of Rev. H. J. McAlister. Of course, a business course, increasing interest perhaps, to Edmontonians is the fact that he is one of Edmonton's own boys. Although not born in the city, as with his parents he came to reside here while quite young and received most of his education here, having been a pupil at the old Eastwood, Fairview, H. A. Gray and the high schools.

After leaving school Mr. McAlister worked in several offices, later taking a business course and after the family moved to Lethbridge, he obtained a position in the Superintendent's office of the Canadian Pacific Railway in that city. He continued with the railway company until the summer of 1921, when opportunity was afforded of answering a call to greater service, which he claims to have felt for some time. He commenced his ministry with his brother, Rev. E. B. McAlister, who was then engaged in evangelistic work.

Assisted Evangelists

Significant assistance was given by Mr. McAlister, who was then engaged in evangelistic work, to the Pentecostal Assemblies of Canada. Mr. McAlister was duly ordained to the ministry, and in January, 1924, he was called to the pastorate of the Pentecostal Assembly in the city for one year and a half.

My motto," declared the youthful pastor, "is 'JUSTICE.' I believe," he continues, "that to be a true servant of mankind is to have a vision of the kingdom of God."

Canada. This was done and the roster was signed by those present, who wished to become members of the new organization.

Membership Increased

A call was extended to Rev. H. J. McAlister to assume the pastorate. Since the organization of the new assembly, about thirty have been immersed in water and more than a score received into the church. Services have been conducted at the corner of 114th avenue and 93rd street, where he will be held.

YPRES

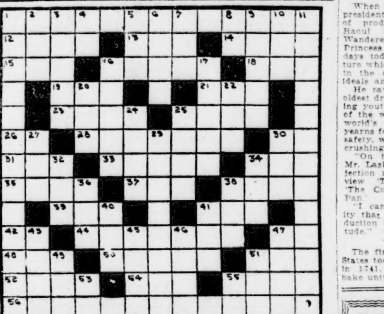

"YPRES," presented at the Capitol Theatre, today is a picture designed to show how the salient was held by British Empire soldiers during the Great War. The story of Ypres, because of the number of years during which the salient was occupied, and because of the countless deeds of heroism performed during its occupation, is transparently a record which no one picture could hope to tell. Therefore British Imperial Pictures, in approaching their task as the producers of "YPRES," in conjunction with the War Office, decided that the best method of treatment would be to follow the outstanding episodes on the issue of which the occupation of the salient from time to time critically depended.

The episodes chosen, according to this plan, are the opening of the first Battle of Ypres, with the loss and recapture of Ghent; the capture of 141,000; the Second Battle, in which the Germans lost the salient; the capture of the salient; the capture of the salient; the capture of the salient.

NEARLY 300 VICTIMS was the toll exacted when a train left the tracks near San Jose, Costa Rica. The four coaches were packed with women and children going to a religious festival at Cartago. The fatality was caused by one car leaving the track, plunging two others down a 190-foot gorge. The cause of the disaster, which occurred on March 14th, was ascribed to overloading

WHAT THE STORM DID IN THE OIL FIELDS OF THE SOUTH: Although lasting but a few moments, the twister which passed over Orange, Texas, oil field area was most spectacular. Over 125 derricks were wrecked at an estimated damage of $1,600,000. As the forests of derricks tumbled, flowing wells began to spout oil into the air. One man was killed. Above photo shows a 112-foot derrick felled by the twister

EXCITEMENT REIGNS IN THE GUMP HOUSE - HOLD AS CHESTER EAGERLY AWAILS THE ARRIVAL OF THE GIANT AIRSHIP WHICH UNCLE BIM IS SENDING TO CARRY HIM ON ANOTHER HAPPY VISIT TO UNCLE BIM'S VAST ESTATES IN AUSTRALIA.

THE HOUSE WILL BE LONESOME WITHOUT CHESTER, BUT HE AND HIS UNCLE BEGGED SO HARD I JUST SIMPLY COULDN'T REFUSE HIM.

NOW DON'T START TO WORRY. YOUR MOTHER HAS ALL OF YOUR THINGS PACKED AND THE AIRSHIP WILL ARRIVE ACCORDING TO SCHEDULE - IT'S NOT DUE UNTIL NOON TIME.

OH GEE - I CAN HARDLY WAIT TO SEE IT.

YOUR UNCLE BIM SPENT MILLIONS FOR THE AIRSHIP. IT IS THE LARGEST, SAFEST AND FASTEST IN THE WORLD. YOU ARE GOING TO TRAVEL LIKE A YOUNG PRINCE.

I THINK UNCLE BIM IS THE NICEST MAN IN THE WORLD EXCEPT YOU.

NOW REMEMBER WHAT I TOLD YOU. I WANT YOU TO ACT LIKE A LITTLE GENTLEMAN - WATCH YOUR STEP AND KEEP OUT OF ALL SORTS OF MISCHIEF WHILE YOU ARE VISITING YOUR UNCLE.

I'LL BE REAL GOOD - I'LL DO EVERYTHING.

I ONLY WISH I HAD YOUR CHANCE TO TAKE A NICE TRIP TO AUSTRALIA, HAVE AN ARMY OF SERVANTS TO WAIT ON ME AND HAVE A NICE RICH UNCLE TO LET ME LIVE IN HIS BEAUTIFUL CASTLE - YOU'LL HAVE EVERYTHING A BOY'S HEART CAN DESIRE.

AND BEST OF ALL I'LL SEE CHING CHOW AGAIN.

GOSH, I ALMOST FORGOT THAT I HAVE SOMETHING NICE I WANT YOU TO GIVE CHING CHOW. WAIT HERE TILL I GET IT.

O, BOY, I HOPE PAPA GIVES ME SOMETHING AWFULLY NICE FOR CHING CHOW - HE WAS SO GOOD TO ME WHEN I WAS LOST ON THAT OLD DESERT ISLAND - WHATEVER I BRING HIM WON'T BE HALF ENOUGH.

IT'S A PRESENT FOR CHING CHOW - DON'T MIND WHAT IT IS. WAIT UNTIL YOU REACH AUSTRALIA, HAND THIS PACKAGE TO CHING CHOW AND TELL HIM YOUR FATHER SENT IT WITH HIS VERY BEST.

WHAT IS IT, PAPA? WHAT IS IT?

JUST THREE MINUTES MORE AND YOU'LL SEE THAT AIRSHIP DROPPING OUT OF THE CLOUDS LIKE A SNOW FLAKE.

OH LETS RUN OUT IN THE YARD AND WATCH IT ARRIVE.

IT'S COMING FROM THE WEST. JUST KEEP YOUR EYE ON THE SKY.

I'LL CLIMB UP ON THE FENCE AND MAYBE I'LL SEE IT FIRST.

SEE THAT LITTLE BLACK SPOT RIGHT BEHIND THE CLOUD? SEE IT NOW?

YES SIR.

OH MIN!

HURRAH! HURRAH! HERE COMES THE AIRSHIP TO TAKE ME TO AUSTRALIA!
